The Edge Team

Edge Real Estate

Joey Edge started out in real estate like many people do, as a real estate investor. One of the brokers he was working with suggested he get his license and several years later, he is winning the Denver Board's Roundtable of Excellence Top Team Sides with a noteworthy total of 132 sides.

Joey and the Edge Team have been recognized by the Denver Board of Realtors as the top producing team & one of the top real estate companies in the Metro area.

The recognition we have earned comes from our dedication to you, our valued clients, and your commitment to us. Working together, we have achieved a remarkable record that has allowed us to help you realize your goals. We know that without your continued trust in our company and our marketing systems, we would not have received the honors over the years that we have. From all of us at Edge Real Estate, thank you and we look forward to many more years of serving you and your families.

- Joey Edge

We thank you for your continued trust and confidence. We are sincerely humbled by you providing us the opportunity to help you accomplish your goals. Your success has allowed for our success.
